Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA teenage romance, set in the 50s-60s. A profile of the 'baby boomers' generation in UK. An insight into teenage angst from anywhere in the world. A reminder of how we all once felt in the days of our youthful ignorance and innocence.Prsentation de l'diteurA teenage romance, set in the 50s-60s. A profile of the 'baby boomers' generation in UK. An insight into teenage angst from anywhere in the world.

A reminder of how we all once felt in the days of our youthful ignorance and innocence.Biographie de l'auteurBernie Morris was born in 1946 and raised in Londons East End. She was educated at Notre Dame Convent in Southwark. Although she always wrote poems, Bernie never thought of seriously writing until 1987, when she wrote 6 novels in the space of a year. This is one of them. Apart from writing, Bernies leisure-time pursuits include: astrology; drawing; compiling crosswords, dingbats, and really daft jokes. She is married to a wonderful man (Bob), who reads all her work, puts up with her jokes, and even does the shopping.
