Description : Description du produitJohn Russell has been raised as an Apache. Now he's on his way to live as a white man. But when the stagecoach passengers learn who he is, they want nothing to do with him -- until outlaws ride down on them and they must rely on Russell's guns and his ability to lead them out of the desert. He can't ride with them, but they must walk with him or die.

Prsentation de l'diteurAlthough known for his mysteries, Elmore Leonard has penned some of the best western fiction ever.USA TodayA classic.Leonards writing style is as effortless and enjoyable as watching a good movie. Portland OregonianGrand Master Elmore Leonard is justifiably acknowledged as the best writer of crime fiction alive (Newsweek)and, in fact, one of the very best ever, alongside other all-time greats like John D. MacDonald, Dashiell Hammett, James M. Cain, and Robert Parker. But he has also many acclaimed masterworks of American western fiction to his creditincluding Hombre, the basis for the classic

Hollywood motion picture starring Paul Newman. Set in Arizona mining country, Hombre is the tale of a white man raised by Indians, who must come to the aid of people who hate him when their stagecoach is attacked by outlaws. As thrilling as his contemporary novels of crime, double-cross, and murder in Detroit and Miami, Hombre is Elmore Leonard at his riveting best no less than one would expect from the creator of U.S. Marshal Raylan Givens (Justified).
