Her career in IT gave her the opportunity to live and work in six different countries on five different continents and, while rewarding, just wasnt how she wanted to spend her days. In 2006 she gave up that career to focus on her passion, writing. Laura's first short story was published in 2008 and her first two novels, "Starting Over" "Life's Journeys" were published by Wings ePress in 2009 2014 respectively. In between writing books she writes short stories in a variety of genres. A handful of these have been published online and in print magazines.
