Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurHe's a foppish assassin. She's a scrawny urchin with a big mouth. They make an unlikely team, but they're the city's only hope. Being Damsports most elegant assassin is hard work. There are devilish poisons to concoct, secret identities to maintain, and tailoring to consider. But most importantly, Longinus has to keep his fear of blood hidden, or his reputation will be ruined. Rory lives on the streets. After her partner-in-crime steals all her money, she wonders if she'll ever be able to afford her dream of becoming an expert swordswoman. When she walks right into Longinus' inadvertently bloody assassination attempt, she learns a secret that may just secure her wish. As Longinus trains Rory in swordsmanship to keep her silence, he runs headlong into something much worse than blackmail. A copycat assassin is on the loose, and Rory and Longinus must work together to stop him. But darker forces than they realise are at play, and with time running out, the unlikely duo find themselves the last line of defence against a powerful enemy who seeks to bring Damsport to its knees. The Bloodless Assassin is the first instalment in The Viper and the Urchin series, a collection of steampunk/fantasy books set in the tropical Victorian-like city of Damsport. If you like quirky characters, richly imagined worlds, and fast-paced action, then you'll love Celine Jeanjean's rollicking novel. INTERVIEW WITH THE AUTHOR Q - So, what makes The Viper and the Urchin series special? A - It's a mix of things really. When I started writing The Bloodless Assassin, I wanted to create something that I'd want to read. My top picks are usually novels that feature quirky characters with humour to them, anything steampunk or fantasy, and I do love a good mystery. The Bloodless Assassin is a great mix of all these things. It's a fun and easy read with a darker mystery threading throughout the story. Q - The setting is a little unusual for steampunk. A - Yes. One of the things I love about fantasy is being whisked away to a completely new and unknown world, and I wanted to recreate that feeling. So I've kept the aesthetic and technology of steampunk, but set my story in an exciting tropical world that's very different from what readers will have encountered before. My world is also at the start of its development of steam technology, so the city of Damsport is very much a mix of old and new. Q - Will there be more books in the series? A - Absolutely! The sequel, The Black Orchid is out now and there are more books in the works. Biographie de l'auteur Celine Jeanjean is French, grew up in the UK and now lives in Hong Kong. That makes her a tad confused about where she is from. During her time in Asia she's watched the sun rise over Angkor Wat, lost her shoes in Vietnam, and fallen off a bamboo raft in China. Her favourite meal is breakfast, she's addicted to googling things, and she hates ironing -- because she's terrible at it. Celine writes stories that feature quirky characters and misfits, and her books are a mixture of steampunk, fantasy and humour.
